

Alumni Enjoy Events from New York to Savannah

By Rachel Montgomery, Director of Alumni Relations & Annual Giving

Davis & Elkins Alumni have been out and about and getting together this year. On January 25th the new Delaware alumni chapter had its first event. Snowy weather kept some members away, but not all. Fourteen alumni and friends of the college made it out to cheer on the Men's basketball team as they took the court against Goldy-Beacom College.

Two weeks later on February 10th, the New York Metro Area alumni chapter held its second event, a tour of Grand Central Terminal and dinner at Rosie O'Grady's Times Square. Forty alumni and friends braved the cold wind of New York to join together for some fun and fellowship.

Warm weather was bound to appear and it did when we held a dinner in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, on March 7th. The D&E golf team was in Myrtle Beach for Spring Break so we had a joint dinner of alumni and students. It was a small but wonderful event. Three days later, in Savannah, Georgia, we cheered on the D&E softball and baseball teams as they played in spring tournaments. On Saturday, March 10th after the D&E baseball team played a nail biting extra inning double header against Fairmont State University, we had a picnic with D&E parents, players and alumni who came down to Savannah to root for the Senators.

In April, we headed to Richmond, Virginia, where we held two events in conjunction with the D&E National Alumni Council (NAC) Meeting. Saturday night a group of 30 alumni and friends gathered at one of Richmond's trendy clubs, The Tobacco Company, for Happy Hour. It was a nice, relaxed evening where alumni from several decades came together and connected through D&E. The next morning a different group of 14 alumni gathered for Champagne Brunch at the Historic Jefferson Hotel in Downtown Richmond. Everyone agreed — if you get the chance to partake in the Jefferson's Sunday Brunch, you should. We filled up on good food and company.

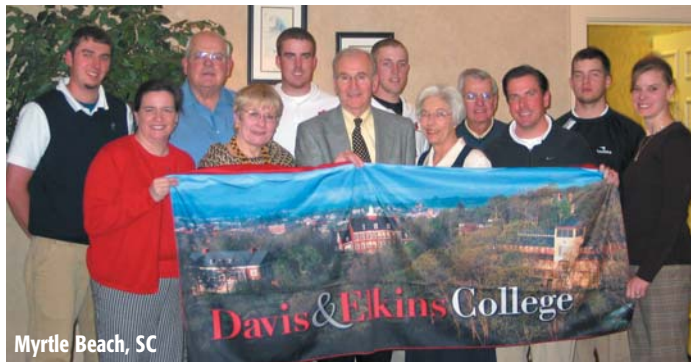

The New York Metro chapter came together again on May 20th to enjoy a Trenton Thunder baseball game. A group of about 30 alumni and friends came out to Trenton, New Jersey, and cheered on the Thunder as they lost their battle against the Harrisonburg Senators. You just can't hold a good Senator down.

Delaware/Maryland

New York, NY

Myrtle Beach, SC

Savannah, GA

Richmond, VA

Richmond, VA

Richmond, VA

Trenton, NJ